How I Achieved 133+ Watch Time Hours & 40+ Subscribers With A Single Video On Day 11 Of My New Channel

The Evidence of The Claim

YouTube is very competitive but I am about to tell you exactly how I accomplished the above but first, the proof.

In the selected period, your channel got 13,655 views

The numbers at the bottom reflect different days for a total of 11 days. While that might be good enough it gets better. I'm creating this report 3 days after the above took place.

Here, it looks like the video had one day of extreme success and then died on day 13. Is that the reality of it?

Day 13 had 779 views. Given that this is day 13 of the site I'm quite pleased with that alone. However, it gets better.

To monetize a channel for search you need at least 1000 watch hours and 500 followers. On day 11 I grew by 40 followers and reached 133+ watch time hours. Two days later I have grown by 18 more followers and more than 40 watch time hours.

This is all due to one video.

How do I know?

Here are the stats for the given video where you can see the incredible spike and then a steady rise from there.

How I Achieved 133+ Watch Time Hours & 40+ Subscribers With A Single Video On An 11 Day Old Channel

SURPRISE BONUS

STEP 1: Setting Foundations

To get started one must first establish the niche for the channel. A niche is a focus. A channel niche can be established around any topic.

EXAMPLE: Massage

Using VIDIQ which I highly recommend, these results come forward.

Personally, I was expecting to see that single word chosen to be far more competitive. Instead we find that it has a huge search volume and competition that is not beyond a new channel.

This is not always the case but it is what is found from the above VIDIQ search. Even so I would continue to follow my thought process for even better results and I will show you why. Next I select the button for related keywords to reveal 149 other possibilities.

Related keywords ⓘ

I'm now presented with these possible options for searching under massage.

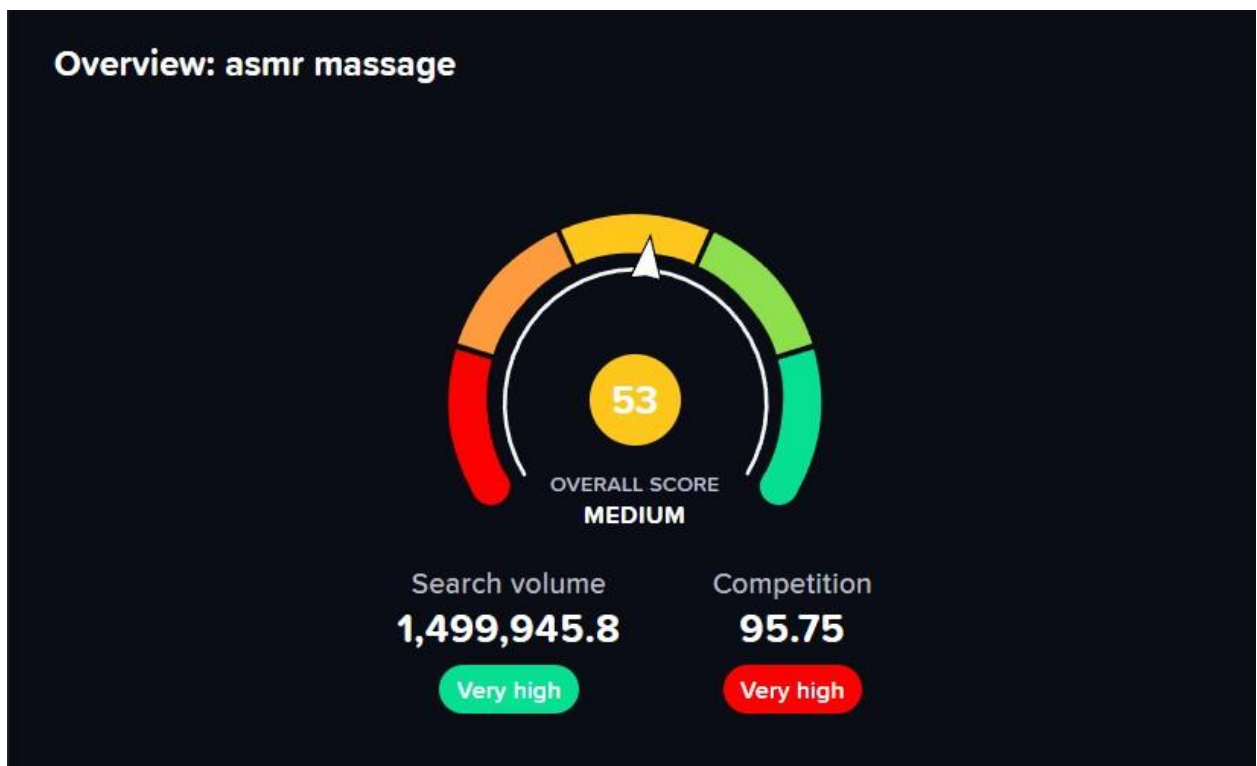

Each one of them offer their own advantages. I like related keywords most but have gleaned results from the other two options. I then proceed to sort these results by the second option available.

Which is search results. I want to see the best results available.

Keyword	Related score	Search volume	Competition	Overall	Number of words
<input type="checkbox"/> message	-	Monthly Searches on YouTube	High	57	1
<input type="checkbox"/> asmr massage	9.4	1,499,945.8	Very high	53	2
<input type="checkbox"/> how to	3.4	760,946.9	Very high	49	2
<input type="checkbox"/> health	3.9	736,241.3	Very high	53	1
<input type="checkbox"/> pain	4.3	646,679.2	Very high	48	1

Clearly ASMR has more traffic than anything else. Being a Massage Therapist I know this is a popular topic. So I click that search result to find out the associated details.

Again we see that this term has extremely high search results but notice the competition. It will be much harder for a new channel to compete out of the gate.

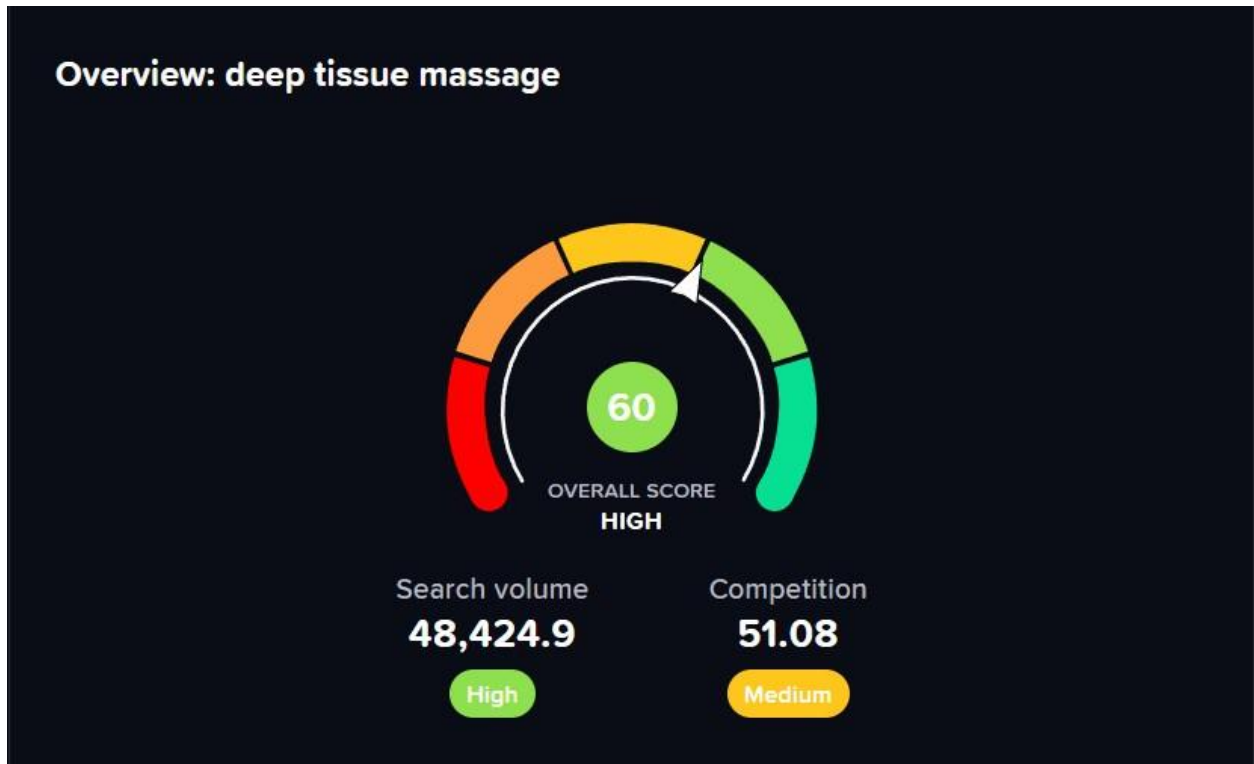

That’s why the “very high” is red. Again I click the “related keywords” but search this time by the 4th column which is “overall.” I’m looking for all the easiest targets to break into.

<input type="checkbox"/> Keyword	Related score	Search volume	Competition	Overall	Number of words
<input type="checkbox"/> asmr massage	-	1,499,945.8	Very high	53	2
<input type="checkbox"/> probeauy kz	1.2	2,596.9	Very low	72	2
<input type="checkbox"/> scottish murmurs	1.2	88,663	Low	71	2
<input type="checkbox"/> cleo abrahams	4.8	126,721.1	Medium	64	2
<input type="checkbox"/> lottie asmr	1.2	2,334.6	Low	63	2
<input type="checkbox"/> deep tissue massage	1.4	48,424.9	Medium	62	3

It is ideal if I can find a result that contains “asmr massage” but this did not happen in the above results. I look at those items in the green to determine what I know most about. In this case I settle on the final result.

<input type="checkbox"/> deep tissue massage	1.4	48,424.9	Medium	62	3
--	-----	----------	--------	----	---

Which has excellent traffic in and of itself. With these health results.

I can continue doing this research if desired. For the purposes of this example we will stop here but we are stopping with a problem. Here are the two results.
